

ReACT Clinic

(Resilience After Complex Trauma Clinic)

WVU Medicine Department of Behavioral Medicine and Psychiatry Child and Adolescent Psychiatry

Complex trauma management treatment plans tailored based on each child's/family's needs

Services provided:

- /// Individual therapy
- /// Medication management for mental health
- /// Family therapy
- /// Social skills group

Clinic is designed for:

- /// Children affected by the opioid crisis
- /// Foster and adopted children
- /// Kinship families
- /// Children with incarcerated parent(s)

Requirements:

- /// Children (5-17 years old) with adverse childhood experiences
- /// Disruptive behaviors that are present both in school and at home
- /// Safe adult who is willing to participate in the intensive therapeutic process and implement new in-home strategies
- /// Family willingness to collaborate with both the school and ReACT team on behavioral strategies

